SERVICE SMILES

It Could Have Been Worse!

He was the youngest second lieutenant in the outfit. The Chaplain was sick on that Sunday. So the Major called the junior officer into headquarters and gave him the special assignment.

"Go to the base hospital. Do your best to cheer up the wounded and the sick. Listen and say very little. That is the secret."

He went in and saw Private Hopkins. Just two brown eyes peering out from a mass of bandages.

"What happened?" was the natural first question.

"The jeep I was riding in skidded," said the patient.

"Could have been worse," commented the officer gently.

"Then the jeep turned over and all of a sudden it caught fire. It was a terrible thing to happen."

"Could have been worse," repeated the officer sympathetically.

"And then an enemy plane sighted us and started machine gunning us fellows. The bullets were all around me. Impossible to believe."

"Could have been worse," said the officer for the third time.

"I managed to crawl away to what I thought was safety," explained the soldier. "Then a bobby trap blew up and threw me in the air. I thought it was the end."

"Could have been worse," said the officer like a record that was repeating the theme song of a hit.

"I wasn't killed," half shouted the patient. "I ended up hanging upside down on a tree. Don't say it could have been worse."

"It could have been worse," continued the officer. "Just think. It could have happened to me!"

 Sharpshooter

It looked as though we were going to eventually get into World War II. And we didn't have much of an army ready to fight. So we started to encourage enlistments. He was a tall thin fellow. Wanted to know just one thing before he signed the papers.

"I got a mighty big appetite. Can I get all I want to eat?"

The answer was just one word: "Yes." So he enlisted. He rarely talked and liked to be left alone. Came the day when the Sergeant explained the workings of the Springfield Rifle. And noticed in the lecture hall that the tall thin fellow was tight asleep. So he woke him up.

"Wise guy? You got to learn about this rifle you will need," he was told.

"I can take it apart blindfolded and put it together again," he replied.

"Three days in the guardhouse if you don't do it," snapped back the Sergeant.

"Three day pass if I do," he replied calmly.

He did it and got his pass. But the Sergeant was still sore about it. Wondered if he had been snared into a trap. Then he got an idea. Told it to the Captain who laughed. They went to the firing range.

"You get 20 cartridges for your Springfield. Make only 10 bulls eyes and you get a three day pass."

So he went to his firing point. Up and down went his target. But he made 19 bulls eyes and got his pass.

"Why didn't you make 20 out of 20?" asked the Captain.

"Could have done it if I shot with my eyes open," was the answer. "I do very well anyway with both eyes closed."

 Terrible Tempered Thompson

The late General Howard Thompson was a military genius. He never lost a battle. No matter how the odds were stacked against him. Once his men were surrounded and the Nazi commander asked him to surrender.

"It's the other way way around," was his reply. "I can't lose. So you surrender to me."

And thirty seven hours later, it turned out that way. He had more medals than any other General in the United States Army. And he also had the worst temper. He was forever demoting his men. And firing the civilians who worked for him. But two days later he forgot all about it. Only once, towards the end of his military career, did somebody beat him and his temper.

There had been a big affair in one of the city's leading hotels. The General, as usual, was mad at something. The service was a bit slow. He spotted a man and called him over.

"You, you, are you the headwaiter?" And before the man could find a reply, the General continued. "You are fired right now."

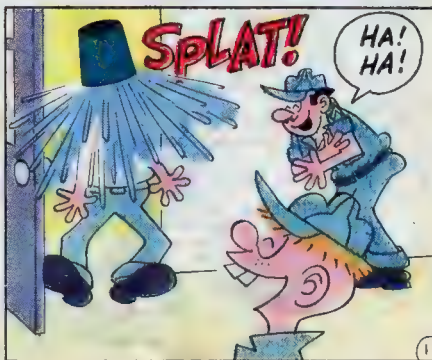

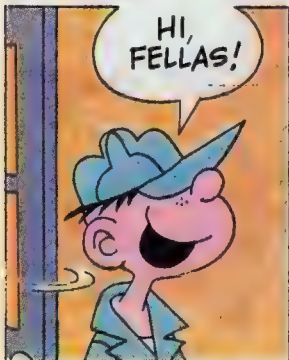

"But I don't work for you," was the calm reply. "So how can you fire me?"

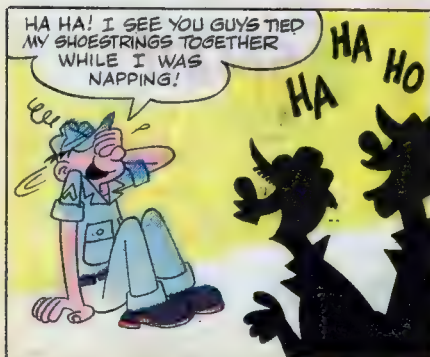

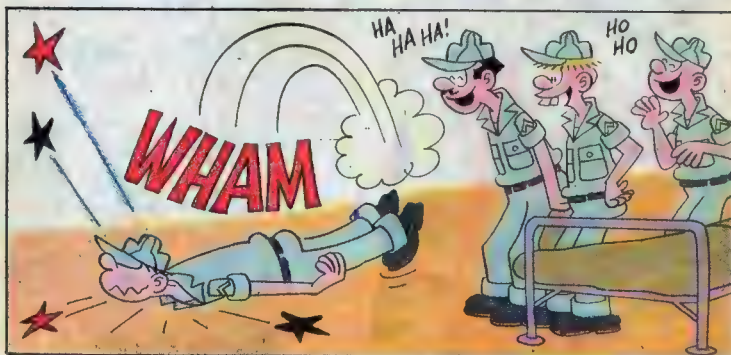

"Don't contradict me," shouted the General. "You are fired!"

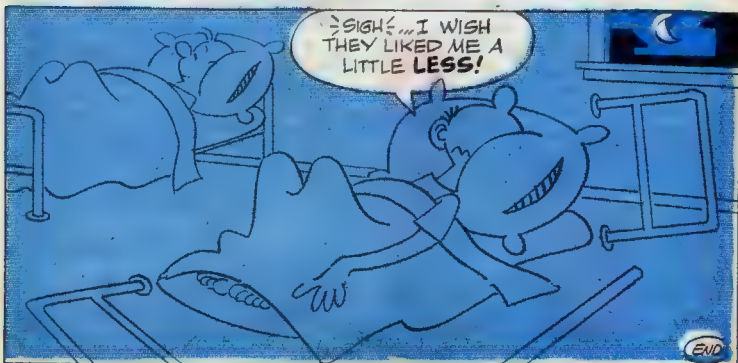

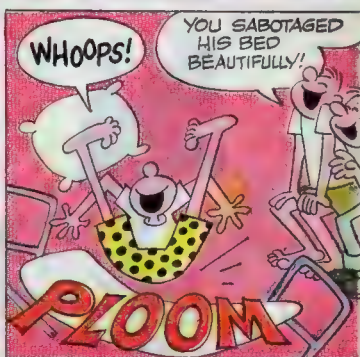

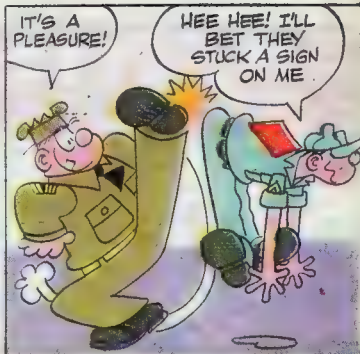

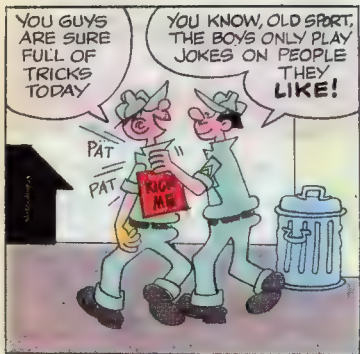

"If so," said the man, "then follow the law. I am entitled to two week's severance pay. Give me $300.00 now. Otherwise you can't fire me."

The General was not going to admit defeat. Out came his thick wallet and he paid the man. The next morning he learned he had "fired" Jim Garrison, the humorist. Who had turned the money over to charity.

CHAMP ATHLETE REVEALS SHORT-CUTS FOR BUILDING STRENGTH AND MUSCLES QUICKLY

— And You Can Use Them to
"Muscularize"
Your Own Body!

HOW did Larry Scott change his once thin, weak-looking body into one that is so muscular, so powerful and so well-proportioned that he has been called the "Most Perfectly Developed Man of All Time"? How did he make the amazing transformation that won him the biggest titles in the world: "Mr. America," "Mr. Universe" and "Mr. Olympia"? And how did he do it so quickly?

Now, for the first time Larry reveals his innermost training secrets in 7 easy-to-understand, quick-reading courses. In them he tells of "secret" exercise methods that have never been made public before — methods so revolutionary, so astounding in the results they bring that it's almost hard to believe — until you try them yourself.

For instance, in one course Larry tells how you can quickly add 2" — 3" — 5" or even MORE to your "pipestem"-thin upper arms. In another course he gives you his unique system that can pile up to 5 power-packed inches to your chest and improve your lung power for swimming, running and other sports. In still another he gives you a fool-proof method for adding 4" of strong athletic muscle to your legs and pack them with spring and "piston-powered" speed. All this and much, much MORE he reveals in his 7 complete courses. Here's the complete list:

1. How to Develop a He-Man V-Shaped BACK
2. How I built My W-I-D-E SHOULDERS
3. Building a "Mr. America" CHEST
4. Herculean LEGS The "Mr. Universe" Way
5. How I Built My 20-Inch BICEPS
6. Molding the "Mr. America" BODY
7. Album of Larry Scott's Best Photos and How to Pose

Each course is complete and filled with action photos that show how Larry performs his "secret" exercises. Thousands have been sold at $1.98 each — a total of almost $14. But now as a reader of this magazine you get all 7 for just $7.98 postpaid — a savings of over 40%!
